Dear

Thank you for your letter of 3 December 1984, with the enclosed vita.

In September of this year we did advertise in the American Historical Association's Perspectives and in the Chronicle of Higher Education (copy enclosed), inviting experienced historians with the Ph.D. degree to apply for a full-time position on the History Staff. The closing date for applications, however, was 15 October 1984. Since we are now close to making our selection, I have to report that we cannot accept your application.

You may want to contact [redacted] to whom you spoke earlier this autumn, about other opportunities in CIA.

I am grateful for your interest, and sorry that we cannot consider you for our History Staff opening.

With all good wishes,

Yours sincerely,

J. Kenneth McDonald
Chief Historian
